Experience

Sarah R. Bates is Vice President of FedReceiver[®], Inc. She has been appointed as receiver in the Superior Court of California, County of Los Angeles, and she has assisted with the administration of hundreds of real estate and business related receivership cases in California, Arizona, and Nevada. She has extensive experience involving asset and business liquidations, residential, retail and commercial real estate. In addition, Ms. Bates has administered cases involving post judgment enforcement actions, single family and condominium construction completion/entitlements, and other types of receivership appointments. Since 2005, Ms. Bates has also been actively involved in the administration of federal court receiverships in United States Securities and Exchange Commission, the Federal Trade Commission, and other government enforcement actions. These cases have involved over 30,000 investors/consumers and funds totaling more than $750 million. In 2009, Ms. Bates designed and implemented a database system which she has used to administer investor/creditor claims in numerous government enforcement actions. Additional experience includes review and analysis of complex forensic accounting data, application of forensic data to claims review, and actions involving clawback litigation.

Ms. Bates is also Vice President of Jalmar Properties, Inc. AMO[®], a real estate investment and property management company specializing in the acquisition, development and management of commercial, retail, industrial and multi-family housing. The company was formed in 1985 and has provided management services for many types of real estate properties with a market value in excess of one billion dollars. Jalmar Properties, Inc. AMO[®] is licensed as a Real Estate Broker in California and Arizona, and the company was awarded the designation of AMO[®] Company of the Year in 2005 by the Institute of Real Estate Management (IREM[®]).
